

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD.—Ran away from the subscriber, Dr. Richard Duckett, near the Governor's Bridge, Prince George's county, Md., NEGRO MAN HENRY BROWN, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high; of dark chesnut color; stout and well built; 30 years of age; full set of whiskers and hair, the latter he wears generally platted or combed out straight. He has a grand-mother, named Sarah Brown, living in Dutch alley, corner of Howard and Eutaw streets, and is probably lurking thereabouts. On the same night, in company with said Henry, two NEGRO WOMEN absconded—one who calls herself Beck, who is the wife of said Henry, and left the residence of her master, T. C. B. Howard, South river, Anne Arundel county; and the other one named Matilda, who is a sister of the said Beck, and left the residence of Miss Martha Howard, Annapolis, Md., to whom she was hired. These girls have a father living near Charles Rowie's, in Prince George's county. They are own sisters, and very much alike—Beck a dark mulatto, and Matilda a very light mulatto. Matilda stoops a little. They are both about 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and of pleasant expressions and rather delicate. The above reward will be given if taken in or out of the State, and secured in jail so that we get them again, or $100 for either.

DR. RICHARD DUCKETT.
